Who Shaped My Soul?
This whole Ragamuffin thing is simple. I'm just a screwed up man, in need of adoption, trying to be real. Real With Myself Others and God. For nine years of my life I was poured into, mentored, taught, and sometimes beat into authenticity. All the while learning to how to do this thing called life. This all took place in Riverside California. Right off the 91 and Adams St. The most amazing moments of my life were had at Sandale Church and that place created what you have here.

Who's Shaping My Soul?
I'm living in a 400 square foot basement with my wife and 3 kids. I have the most amazing job in the world and get to create relevant, engaging worship experiences every week. I am being shaped by Jeff Henderson and Andy Stanley at Buckhead Church in Atlanta, Georgia. From creative sermon planning, to engaging videos, to off the hook music experiences. This place is stretching me to my limits and I love it.

OK. Seriously. The man is anointed. And the fact that he was on his knees on the floor worshipping along side the students took him up another level in my book. It was a great night. Here are some shots...
